I've told you many times yet
you still won't believe me?
How many licks does it take to make you understand?

The no. 1 ranked popular actor, Kagami (a were-cat who can transform into a leopard),
and his boyfriend, Shingo (a black cat).

Kagami is madly in love to the point that leopard spots appeared on his skin when he heard Shingo say the word "love" while dozing in bed. But what will happen when a celebrity man sees them kissing?

Thank you so much for buying the book, everyone!

It's with immense gratitude that I present the second volume of a story between a legend & a black cat.

This volume was compiled with a color insert! But honestly, there was so much skin tone, I thought, "Couldn't it have been two-tone instead of full color, anyway?" I'm glad I put so much work into those skin colors, though.

I really loved the announcement text that my editor did for the original splash page I was hoping we could've played with it. My editor sure can come up with some catchy text.

The legend and black cat in the continuation of my previous book, Tsuneko Kuroshi no Asahi Koto (How to Play with a Black Cat Boyfriend), but I still had more themes to explore, so I focused on those in this book. It sure makes it hard to write when you've got conflicting ideas in mind during the writing process.

I've still got more in store for the black cat boyfriend, so I hope you stick around to enjoy more of these books! Tsuneko

I hope that I showed enough.
